TFT presents EXIT(S) (Confiance ! et Bang!) by up-and-coming Franco-Albertan Author LUC MOQUIN

Théâtre français de Toronto is proud to introduce a new voice in playwriting. LUC MOQUIN, a young author from Alberta, shows great promise with his comic verve and style. In his new play, Exit(s), he bridges the gap between people who don't go to theatre and those who are in the audience... EXIT(s) will be presented at Berkeley Street Theatre April 5 to 9, 2006.

They are watching a play called Bang!, six characters who meet at the theatre. At first, they are delighted. However, half way through, they are starting to get bored, but they decide to stay until the end. When the curtain finally falls, they are beside themselves: it was awful. And to think that they have paid for this! Worse, this is only intermission! Little do they know that they are in for a big surprise.

Exit(s), a hilarious comedy about creation, was written specifically for new audiences.

This play, by a promising young author, brings new blood to TFT as well as a voice from another francophone community. Exit(s) is produced by Théâtre la Catapulte in Ottawa and Théâtre du Nouvel-Ontario in Sudbury, in collaboration with the National Arts Centre, the Hearst Arts Council, the Centre culturel Frontenac in Kingston and La Clé d'la Baie in Penetanguishene who took part in the writing process.

Directed by Joël Beddows and Geneviève Pineault. With Daniel Aubin, Carol Beaudry, Chanda Legroulx, Magali Lemèle, Pierre Simpson and Stéphanie Kym Tougas.

Set design: Brian Smith; Costume design: Isabelle Bélisle; Lighting design: Guillaume Houët; Music: Christian Berthiaume.
